STATINTL

1. In this morning's paper there was a story concerning a State Department study of its relationship with other agencies. This study will include relationships with the USIB agencies. It will not directly involve IAS, but it is something we will be hearing more about in the future as it evolves.

2. Mr. Kissinger is leaving Sunday morning for Paris. The current package of papers on the ceasefire includes a plan conducting reconnaissance after the ceasefire. One of the conditions prohibits overflights of North Vietnam. There will be a 12-mile limit for planes on coastal peripheral flights.

3. NSC did meet, so Ambassador Smith did get some guidance concerning SALT II. The first session will be exploratory only, with no specific proposals to be presented by the U.S. [redacted] is well prepared to talk about anything that may come up on compliance. STATINTL

4. [redacted] commented that the CFC had all but 6 envelopes returned to him and said that all we lacked was $82 to reach our goal. Mr. Allen urged 100% participation.

5. A discussion of the IAS Christmas Tree was brought up and it was suggested that we take up a collection of 50¢ from everyone for one big tree to be placed in the lobby of IAS. The money will go toward the tree, decorations for it and lights.
